from Daily Kos via Stop the War Machine: “Sign and send the petition to Congress: end the mass incarceration of migrant children now. Our fears have come true. The government is now relocating thousands of migrant children to languish in prison camps in a Texas desert. In recent weeks, hundreds of children were moved in the middle of the night to a “tent city” in rural West Texas. These new locations are unregulated and kids do not have access to schools or legal services. We need to stop the administration before they continue expanding these prison camps”

And from Brave New Films: “immigrant prisons and family separation are still wreaking havoc on families. ... At Brave New Films, we use the power of film to keep shining light on these continuing injustices. We released the Immigrant Prisons series a few years ago to spotlight how locking up immigrants is a cash cow for the private prison industry. Today, we wanted to let you know that we have added another segment to the series. Trauma at the Border is an essential update to the story about how the Trump administration is worsening an already inhumane and unjust system.”
