“Climate Action for Alaska | Update November 1, 2018 - ... The recommended climate action plan provides a menu of more than 60 potential actions for the State of Alaska to consider for implementation as part of a comprehensive response to climate change and in preparation for future environmental changes... --- early actions... developed by the Governor's Climate Cabinet... fall into four main categories:

- addressing villages at risk from erosion, flooding, and permafrost degradation
- assessing climate effects on Alaska’s fisheries
- lowering emissions and energy costs
- helping Alaska transition to a more energy efficient economy

... The Climate Cabinet will work to identify which recommendations are suitable for near-term action and which require additional data, research, or stakeholder input.... -- The two sets of CALT recommendations and the State of AK Climate Actions by Department can be downloaded from the Governor's climate change website. .. from *win*without*war*: “The war machine won’t wait until the new Congress is sworn in January. So we can’t, either. Here are just some of our plans to build a bigger, more powerful movement to win without war in the days, weeks, and months after Tuesday’s election:

- Drown out Saudi Arabia’s 200 lobbyists with our people power and win votes in Congress to finally cut off U.S. support for the disastrous Saudi-led war in Yemen
- Take on the Iran war hawks and build roadblocks to stop the disastrous war they want
- Block torturers, hatemongers, and bigots from jobs in the federal government, and stand in solidarity with communities facing hate and violence
- Launch a bold new vision for a federal budget that invests in peace, not war
- Ensure that new members of Congress and their staff hear from you, not just arms makers, foreign influence peddlers, and other powerful special interests”

from World BEYOND War:

“Armistice Day Statement

The Armistice of 1918 ended the terrible slaughter of World War I. The U.S. alone had experienced the death of over 116,000 soldiers, plus many more who were physically and mentally disabled. For one moment, at the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month, the world agreed World War I must be considered the WAR TO END ALL WARS. There was exuberant joy everywhere, and many churches rang their bells, some 11 times at 11 a.m. November 11, when the Armistice was signed. For many years this practice endured, and then slowly, it faded away. Now we do it again. We ring the bells 11 times, with a moment of silence, to remember the many soldiers and civilians killed and injured by warfare, and to make our renewed commitment to work for peace, in our family, our church, our community, our nation, our world.

from American Friends Service Committee (AFSC): “4 things you can do to stand with the caravan: Here’s how you can speak out against anti-immigrant rhetoric and call on our elected officials to protect the rights and dignity of all immigrants.

“1. Click here to publicly comment on Trump’s proposed rule. It’s titled “Apprehension, Processing, Care, and Custody of Alien Minors and Unaccompanied Alien Children.”
2. Tell the government to reject any regulation that would allow the detention of immigrant children and families. Use your own words and write from your own values and experiences. Here are some points to consider:

- Keeping children in detention causes lasting trauma.
- Detention cannot be carried out humanely.
- Indefinite detention of immigrant families violates human rights, fosters abuse and mistreatment, and is expensive, impractical, and unnecessary.
- Protecting basic human rights is not a loophole.

Comments must be submitted by Tuesday, Nov. 6. Tell the government today: No more family detention.”
