from Susi Snyder, Author, Don't Bank on the Bomb. International Campaign to Abolish Nuclear Weapons: "These 28 companies are making nuclear weapons. The research shows that these companies are fuelling a new nuclear arms race and putting the world in danger and should be blacklisted by any responsible bank and financial institution. Click here to see which companies you need to avoid [including Boeing, Lockheed, Raytheon, Northrop Grumman, others]. Read the full report here."

from Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Fbks: "Special Announcement - [We have] learned that a number of congregations have been hit with an email scam. It involves making a fake Gmail account in the minister's name, and then sending a request for gift cards allegedly from that minister to the congregation's directory. Apparently when you send the gift card it gets cashed by the scammer. This article about this scam may be helpful: <http://ow.ly/U8qI30oD6ms>
If you receive such an email [purporting to be from UUFF], please notify Rev. Leslie (minister@uuff.org) or Mel (admin@uuff.org) immediately. Thank you!"

Fairbanks found to be #3 of 'Most polluted cities for year-round particulate pollution,' per NewsMiner 4/25/29.

from Anchorage Daily News 4/18/19 (& no updated information found): “One item that has received relatively little attention so far in Gov. Mike Dunleavy’s draconian budget proposal is his plan to eliminate state support for public broadcasting. Many communities in rural Alaska depend on their public radio stations for news and information.

“Included in the public broadcasting budget line is Gavel Alaska, which provides live coverage of the Alaska Legislature, including committee meetings, Alaska Senate and House floor sessions, press conferences and other legislative events. Each meeting is archived so that Alaskans can watch it even if they miss the original broadcast or livestream. Gavel Alaska allows Alaskans in widely dispersed communities — with a state capitol that is off the road system — to keep themselves informed about what is happening in Juneau.”

Legislative contacts are listed at the bottom of this newsletter.

from AkPIRG: “The Senate Can Restore Net Neutrality - Take Action! The House of Representatives voted 231 to 190 to pass the Save the Internet Act to restore net neutrality. But now we need to focus on the U.S. Senate, where we’ll need the support of 60 Senators to win. Tell your Senators to cosponsor the Save the Internet Act to block ISPs from throttling traffic, censoring content, and imposing unfair fees.”

from AmericanPromise.net: “The numbers are bleak but tell the story:

- 130 Americans die every day from opioid overdose.
- The death rate from opioid overdose is up 200 percent since 2000.
- Nearly one in three people know someone addicted to opioids.

There’s another important number—$30,000,000. That’s the average amount the drug industry has donated annually to federal campaigns since the early 2000s. Donations from “Big Pharma” go to candidates on both sides of the political aisle as drug companies seek policies that lower regulations, speed drug approvals, and increase prices and their profits... This month New Hampshire is poised to become the 20th state to call on Congress for the 28th Amendment. Through the momentum of local movements like this, we move closer to winning the 28th Amendment [declaring corporations are not people] and ending the grip of Big Pharma and other special interest groups on our lives.”

Audio & Songs broadcast with this week's Community News:

-- Asymmetric Moose Music 05/05/19

This is Rob Mulford. Welcome to the Asymmetric Moose’s Music Picks for the Week of May 5, 2019. This past Friday, the third of May, was the one hundred year birthday of, my hero, the tireless activist for human rights and dignity, folk music legend, Pete Seeger. Being as I’m still basking in May Day’s glorious spirit of working class-consciousness, I decided this week to play tunes that evoke that spirit and celebrate the man whose banjo said, “This machine surrounds hate and forces it to surrender.”

In this first tune, Pete put words from a 19th century Mining Union rulebook to music, Step By Step.

Next is a medley of two tunes, one written by Aunt Molly Jackson, I Am A Union Woman, and the other Which Side Are You On, by Florence Reece, two powerfully courageous women who fought the mine bosses, shoulder to shoulder with their husbands

Harriet Tubman was born into slavery, escaped and subsequently made some thirteen missions rescuing approximately seventy enslaved people, family and friends using the network of antislavery activists and safe houses known as the Underground Railroad. She later helped abolitionist John Brown recruit men for his raid on Harpers Ferry. During the American Civil War, she served as an armed scout and spy for the United States Army. In her later years, Tubman was an activist in the struggle for women’s suffrage. Jane Sapp sings about her here in, Harriet Tubman.

Because, hearts starve as well as bodies, give us bread, but give us roses. The powerful message and song that came out of the great Industrial Workers of the World led textile workers strike, Bred and Roses, sung by Si Kahn.

Rosa Luxemburg said, "Freedom is always and exclusively freedom for the one who thinks differently." I'll let Pete introduce the next tune Die Gendanken Sind Frei.

Next is Ralph Chaplin's 1915, is a popular IWW anthem. Solidarity Forever.

Next Pete, in the spirit of John Henry, drives his Rainbow Around This World. Happy belated, Birthday Pete.
