Audio & Songs broadcast with this week's Community News:

"Hello this is Rob Mulford, the Asymmetric Moose, with picks for the week of March 28th, 2021,

The witness recalled a lifetime spent as a gangster, a muscle man in the employ of the rackets. He described a racket as, "something that is not what it seems to the majority of the people... Only a small 'inside' group knows what it is about. It is conducted for the benefit of the very few, at the expense of the very many" ... and "the profits are reckoned in dollars and the losses in lives." Looking back, he continued his testimony elucidating specific crimes: "I helped make Mexico and especially Tampico safe for American oil interests in 1914. I helped make Haiti and Cuba a decent place for the National City Bank boys to collect revenues in. I helped in the raping of half a dozen Central American republics for the benefit of Wall Street. I helped purify Nicaragua for the International Banking House of Brown Brothers in 1902–1912. I brought light to the Dominican Republic for the American sugar interests in 1916. I helped make Honduras right for the American fruit companies in 1903. In China in 1927 I helped see to it that Standard Oil went on its way unmolested... I might have given Al Capone a few hints. The best he could do was to operate his racket in three districts. I operated on three continents."

The previous testimony is real, the witness expert and credible. His name was Smedley Darlington Butler. At the time of his testimony he was a retired U.S. Marine Corps Major General who, during his career, had received five medals for heroism including two Congressional Medals of Honor. In a just world his testimony would have been heard by a court of law. Aside from the rare arrest and prosecution of a small time swindle like the recent arrest of an Air Force Senior Airman – the grade is E4, just a few steps above recruit – and a contractor for fraudulently obtaining information that benefited the contractor with lucrative contracts in Alaska, like building facilities for the F-35; itself a racket that likely will never see the inside of a court room; the big-time gangsters – the F-35's Lockheed Martin for instance – remain free to fleece and pillage. They are powerful, ubiquitous. Their fingers are everywhere.

Take Elon Musk, for instance. A snapshot of the $157.4 billion net worth gangster's fingers can be seen in this week's (March 26) Fort Wainwright Alaska Post. The article titled "Space break: An SMDC officer's internship with SpaceX" says "Capt. Cole Cupit, space superiority capability developer, Army Capability Manager for Space and High Altitude, Space and Missile Defense Center for Excellence, completed a Training with industry fellowship program with Space Exploration Technologies Corp (SpaceX) on Hawthorne California, June 2019 – June 2020.”

“It was a great experience to be able to see the civilian space world and corporate America, and to see where it aligns with the military space world, Cupit said.”

Isn’t that sweet; the civilian space world, corporate America, and the military, not only in alignment but full fellowship - with the multibillionaire maniac who sends Tesla Roadsters to the sun and wishes to bomb the red planet with 10,000 nuclear warheads, no less. This one begs investigation! If not in a U.S. Court of Law, then in the World Court; The Treaty on Principles Governing the Activities of States in the Exploration of Outer Space, applying.

General Butler was not speaking in metaphor. War Is A Racket! Let’s keep space for peace!

“And who will tell the people that free speech is a ruse. The corporations run the country and then they make the news.” David Rovics sings Who Will Tell The People.

I know I’ve played this tune recently; just can’t help myself, and it fits; the shoe too, as you’ll hear after Buffy Sainte-Marie Sings The War Racket.

Next Emma’s Revolution asks a question that begs investigation. Again, we played this recently, I know, but Who Lies; Who Dies; Who Pays; Who Profits.

Next Country Joe and the Fish sing their darkly funny tune about another not so funny U.S. corporate fellowship alignment - The 'Fish' Cheer_I-Feel-Like-I'm-Fixin'-To-Die Rag

I’ll go out with this important public service message for my brother and sister warfighters, stationed here in Alaska. GI Rights Hotline
